IN PITIABLE PLIGHT BRINGING UP MATTER

Unfortunate Men Presented a Heart After Laughter, Applause, Humorous
Breaking Sight When the Raft and Serious Speeches It Was
With Its Human Load Decided to Take Up the
Was Discovered. Statehood Bill.

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 25.—A special representative of the Post-Intelligencer wired from Port Angeles that the rescue ship City of Topeka picked up a life boat at 10 o'clock Wednesday six miles off Cape Beale with twenty survivors of the Valencia on board. The men were in a pitiable condition and almost dead from exposure, being about half frozen and practically unconscious. The raft was sighted about 12 o'clock. A terrible sea was running. One minute the raft poised on top of a wave, the next minute it would be lost from view in a gully formed by mountainous breakers. The twenty men battled bravely on their frail support with a pair of oars to reach the City of Topeka, which, owing to the dangerous coast, could not run close to them. When half a mile from the raft a boat in charge of Second Mate Burke, who with much difficulty succeeded in making fast a line to the raft. Spectators on the City of Topeka watched the struggle of the gallant seamen breathlessly. One minute they were high in the air and the next lost to sight. At last they succeeded in bringing the raft to the side of the steamer.

The sight of the poor creatures on the raft brought tears to the eyes of the sailors on the vessel. In the stern of the raft sat an old man; his snow white hair and pallid features were creased and torn by flying spray, but the instant of life was strong in him and he held on bravely to his place. Three others were lying in a senseless heap in the rear, washed by every swell and retained solely by the bodies of the other men, who were closely packed. The work of rescuing them was dangerous. The men were too exhausted to even tie a rope about themselves.

The raft put out from the wreck Wednesday morning. The survivors told terrible tales of the wreck of the Valencia. When they left the ship there was about ninety people on board, most of them clinging to the rigging. Men, women and children were being swept by every sea.

As soon as the men got aboard the City of Topeka Dr. Whiting, assisted by two nurses and two members of the crew, administered stimulants and put them to bed.

Just as the men were about to be rescued C. Allison of St. Paul, Minn., an aged man, was swept off the raft and never seen again.

After rescuing these parties the steamer went in search of another raft which the rescued men said left the ship earlier in the day, but no sign of it was to be seen.

REFUSED TO APPEAR.

Frank Rockefeller Declined to Testify
In Standard Oil Case.

Cleveland, Jan. 25.—Frank Rockefeller refused to appear before Attorney General Hadley and testify Thursday in the hearing in connection with the action of the state of Missouri against the Standard Oil company. A deputy sheriff served a subpoena on Rockefeller Wednesday evening, Thursday morning the deputy reported that Mr. Rockefeller had said: "I will not appear. I cannot appear, and there is no use talking about it. They may send me to jail if they want to."

No service was obtained on John Teagle, W. E. Judd, W. F. Lowe or W. P. McKee. Lowe is of the Navarre Oil company and Judd and McKee of the Republic Oil company, which, according to evidence brought out at the recent hearing in New York, are subsidiaries of the Standard Oil company.

FOURTEEN LIVES LOST.

Caused by an Explosion of Fire Damp
In a Coal Mine.

Poteau, I. T., Jan. 25.—Fourteen lives were lost in an explosion in slope No. 4 of the Whitteville mine. The explosion was caused by fire damp. Three of the fourteen bodies have been recovered but it is impossible to enter the mine, because of gas, to attempt the recovery of the bodies.

The explosion occurred at entry No. 4, where sixteen men were working. Two of the men nearest the entrance were able to escape.

YELLOW FEVER CASE.

On Board the Bremen and She Will Be Detained Six Days.

New Orleans, Jan. 25.—German cruiser Bremen arrived at the mouth of the Mississippi river with a yellow fever case on board. The patient has been severed and the vessel will be fumigated and detained six days.

Chinese Visit Annapolis.
Annapolis, Md., Jan. 25.—The imperial Chinese commission visited the naval academy Thursday.

Washington, Jan. 25.—When the smoke of the liveliest legislative battle of the session had cleared in the house Wednesday Speaker Cannon and his organization were in complete control and the joint statehood programme of the administration had been adopted.

Forty-three Republican insurgents went down in defeat, having voted vainly with the Democrats to gain control of the rule, the terms of which are to govern the statehood bill in its passage through the house. The vote ordering the previous question on the rules was 192 to 165 yeas. This clearly defeated the opposition, the full strength of which was polled, and little interest was taken in the vote for the adoption of the rule, which, immediately following this, was carried by a majority of thirty.

Previous to this the debate on the rule had proceeded under high tension. The speeches were short, but the words uttered were hot and full of sting. Every member who could be brought to the city by special summons was in his place; the galleries were packed and participated with evident relish in the succession of laughter and applause. The veterans, Payne, Dalzell and Grosvenor, upheld the organization. Pitted against them were the leaders of the insurgents, Babcock, Mondell and Jones of Washington. The humorous speech of the day was delivered by J. Adam Bede, who filled five minutes with a speech that evoked applause and merriment. Mr. Tawney, one of the erstwhile insurgents, arose and announced his acquiescence in the will of the organization, and Mark Smith, the veteran delegate from Arizona, just as sorrowfully interpreted this action as the "most unkind thrust of all."

The rule adopted provided that the bill granting statehood to Oklahoma and Indian Territory as "Oklahoma," and Arizona and New Mexico as "Arizona" should be debated until 3 o'clock Thursday and then voted on without opportunity for amendment.

Payne Bill to Be Submitted.

Washington, Jan. 25.—The house committee on ways and means decided to report favorably on the Payne bill providing for changes in the Philippine tariff on cotton textiles which will make opportunities on the island more favorable for the sale of the products of American mills.

Favors Burnett Bill.

Washington, Jan. 25.—The house committee on public lands decided to make a favorable report on the Burnett bill setting aside 90,000 acres of mineral land in Alabama for school purposes.

FOUR FEET HIGH.

Families Had to Be Rescued From Their Peril on Horses.

Roanoke, Va., Jan. 25.—A belated special to the Times from Marion, Va., received Wednesday, was the first intelligence from that point since the flood of Monday night and Tuesday. The down pour at Marion was the heaviest in the town's history and great damage was done to property in the lowlands. Currie bridge, on the Marion and Rye Valley railroad, on the Marion was swept away, and the section of the town in which this structure stood buried in wreckage. The water rose to a height of four feet in many dwelling houses in that section. No lives were lost, but families had to be carried from their perilous positions on horseback. It was near Marion that the Norfolk and Western suffered washouts and slides, delaying traffic twenty-four hours.

TOWN IN FLAMES.

Serious Fighting Occurs Between Soldiers and Revolutionists.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 25.—The town of Wvirlia, in the Caucasus, is in flames after serious fighting between the troops and the revolutionists, during which many men were killed.

The revolutionary movements in the district of Walek and Warro, in the government of Livonia, ended with the arrival of the troops under the command of General Olroff.

A. AND M. VACANCIES FILLED.

Prof. Chas. B. Campbell of College, Rev. Powell of Brenham and Mr. C. E. Bartholemew.

Hon. George T. Jester of Corsicana and Hon. W. J. Clay of Austin, Commissioner of Insurance, Statistics and History, were at College this week in their capacity as members of the board of directors of the Agricultural and Mechanical College. They, together with President Harrington, constitute the committee on vacancies in the college faculty, and in connection with Hon. L. D. Amster of Hemstead, they compose the buildings committee of the board. Mr. Amster was not present, but the two members present, constituting a majority of the committee, accepted the new warehouse which has but recently been completed, and approved the repair work that has been going on since the committee was last in session.

The committee on vacancies then proceeded to fill several of the vacancies in the faculty and offices of the college.

Mr. Chas. B. Campbell was elected to succeed the late Dr. Thomas C. Bittle as head of the department of modern languages, with the rank of associate professor. Mr. Campbell has been an instructor in this department during the last three years and has been in charge of the department since Dr. Bittle's death in October. Mr. Campbell did his undergraduate work at DePaul University, Greencastle, Ind., from which institution he took his bachelor's degree in 1900. He spent the next two years as a high school teacher, and then pursued his studies in his chosen field, the modern languages, in the University of Chicago. He came to the Agricultural and Mechanical College in September, 1903, and his promotion to the head of the department comes as the reward of proven merit.

It will be remembered that Dr. Bittle was chaplain of the college as well as professor of modern languages, and his death left the college community without a chaplain. To fill this very important place the board has selected Rev. Nathan Powell, pastor of the Methodist Church of Brenham. Beside his ministerial duties, Dr. Powell will fill the vacancy in the department of modern languages created by the promotion of Mr. Campbell, and will have the rank of associate professor. He has been notified of his election by telephone and has agreed to accept the position.

Dr. Powell is a native Texan, having been reared near Mexia in Limestone county. He received his early education in the public schools of the county and at the old Tehuacana College. Here he began the study of the German language, a study which he kept up consistently throughout his entire college course. Leaving Tehuacana College, Dr. Powell went to Vanderbilt University where he took the A. B. degree. He next entered the divinity school at Yale University, from which he received the degree of bachelor of divinity. He then spent a year at the University of Goettingen, Germany, devoting himself to the study of the theology and the German language. Returning to Texas, Dr. Powell entered the Texas conference of the Methodist Church, and, after a successful three years pastorate at Richmond, he was stationed at Brenham by the last annual conference. In writing of him, Rev. John R. Nelson, financial agent of the Southwestern University, at Georgetown, said: "He is a student and a thinker. His moral character is of the finest fiber. Being a preacher as well as a scholar, he would have a fine influence over your student body, and would be a living link between the college and the Christian constituency of Texas."

A vacancy in the department of entomology, created by the recent resignation of Mr. Louis Scholl, was filled by the election of Mr. C. E. Bartholemew. Mr. Bartholemew graduated from the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Iowa in June 1904. He spent his senior work over two years, as a large part of his time was taken up with his work as student assistant in the department of entomology. "On graduation," says Prof. H. E. Summers, State Entomologist of Iowa, "he was appointed instructor at a salary of $500, with the understanding that he was to have at least half of his time free for post graduate work. His work here has been eminently satisfactory, and I wish very much that funds were available to offer him such an increase of salary as would retain him here permanently. But he has every right to expect from his training and ability a much better position."

TEXAS WOMAN'S COLLEGE.

Mr. W. C. Davis Makes Address at the Chapel Exercises Yesterday.

By invitation of Dr. Geo. B. Butler, the president, an Eagle representative had the pleasure of attending the chapel exercises of the Texas Woman's College yesterday morning from 9:30 to 10 o'clock. The young lady students of the college marched in a body, attended by the teachers, from the dormitory to the chapel of the First Baptist church at 9:30 a. m., and made a most regular, orderly and creditable showing. The total attendance in all departments is now sixty-three and four more pupils are enrolled to enter Feb. 1.

The chapel service opened with the reading of the twenty-third Psalm by Dr. Butler. This was followed by a hymn in which the entire student body joined with fine effect. Following a fervent invocation, Dr. Butler called on Mr. W. C. Davis to address the school on the subject of "Nineteen Hundred and Five." Mr. Davis, who is well known as a fluent and impressive speaker, held the undivided attention of the assemblage for about fifteen minutes and his remarks were timely and profitable. The subject was handled with reference to the record of the past year as an influence upon the future, and Mr. Davis marshalled before his hearers the wonderful accomplishments of war, literature, science, etc., in the past twelve months; also the accomplishments of gathering wealth, and the uncovering of ill-gotten gain. He emphasized especially the progress of christian education, and in conclusion advised the young ladies of the Texas Women's College to give time and attention to the careful reading of good books.

One cannot fail to be impressed with the strong school sentiment which has already, within a few short months, been established in this school; and this, taken with the solid work being done, of which there are manifold evidences, leaves no doubt in the mind that the future of the Texas Woman's College is assured.

THE BIG CARNIVAL.

The Brownie Balloon Company carnival has attracted good crowds the past two nights and appears to be giving general satisfaction. Those who have seen all the carnivals which have been here say it is decidedly the best we have had yet. The attractions all show up as they are represented and are well arranged with an open court in the middle for the confetti battles and merry-making.

"Madam Hiler," the monkey balloonist, went up yesterday afternoon and made a successful parachute leap. This feature will likely be repeated on Saturday, and is worth attention.

The carnival will be here two more days and nights. If you haven't been yet, "get the habit."

THE PLAYER MAID.

"The Player Maid," presented at the opera house last night by Miss Florence Davis and Mr. Elliott Dexter, with an all round clever supporting company, proved to be a beautiful society comedy drama—one of the best ever seen here. The audience was not large, but could not have been better pleased or more outspoken in appreciation.

FUNERAL OF MRS. T. J. McQUEEN.

The remains of Mrs. T. J. McQueen were brought here from Houston yesterday accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Cabene Blake and Mrs. J. Allen Kyle of Houston, Miss Nonie Adams of this city, Mr. and Mrs. John Fordtran of Galveston and Mrs. V. Ellis of Paris. Mr. and Mrs. R. Cowser, Mr. James Maroney and Mrs. T. W. Griffith of Dallas, Dr. B. V. Ellis of Paris and Mr. T. B. McQueen of Marlin arrived yesterday morning. The funeral service was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff A. Adams at 4 o'clock and conducted by Father Nicholson of Houston and Father Glessner of St. Joseph's Catholic Church.

A large assemblage of friends were present and formed a procession to the city cemetery. There were many handsome floral offerings.

The pall bearers were Gen. H. B. Stoddard, W. E. Saunders, Dr. J. L. Fountain, L. L. McInnis, R. G. Tabor, A. D. McConico.

MRS. DONNA WOOTEN.

Death Follows Recent Stroke of Paralysis—Funeral This Morning.

Mrs. Donna Wooten, who was recently stricken with paralysis, died at her home in this city yesterday morning at 8:20 o'clock. Mrs. Wooten was a native of Georgia and widow of the late Mr. T. P. Wooten of Bryan, for many years a business man and highly respected citizen. She was 65 years old and had lived in Bryan thirty-five years. She was a devout member of the Methodist church, and ever faithful in her attendance upon the regular church services and the Sunday school. She was kind hearted and lovable in character, and will be sadly missed by the members of her family, neighbors and friends. She leaves three children, Messrs. W. P. and James Wooten, and Mrs. Holland Nixon of Belton. The funeral will be held at 10 o'clock this morning at the home.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS.

The installation of officers of Vulcan Lodge, A. O. U. W., was held at the lodge room last night, this being the 25th installation, and no doubt the oldest order of its kind in Bryan. At this meeting were members present who signed the charter in 1881 and have continuously been serving the order with faithfulness. During this period this old lodge has paid to widows and orphans in Bryan $97,000.00, and is still helping and will never cease to protect those who share in its benefits.

An oyster supper was greatly enjoyed by the assembled members after the meeting at Holmes & Wiley's restaurant.

The new officers are as follows: M. E. Wallace, P. M. W.; W. S. Higgs M. W.; G. W. Higgs, Foreman; Joe Pletzer, Overseer; W. J. Walker, Recorder; Joe B. Reed, Financier; M. F. Dansby, Receiver; C. M. Spell, I. W.; W. A. Reed, O. W.

Milton Dawson, who is in the state with the "Fortune Teller" company, will be in Bryan Saturday night for a visit to Capt. and Mrs. D. D. Dawson.

When you give me an order you have no express charges and are under no obligations to take the goods if not pleased. Mrs. Mary Lawrence, agent Ed Kiam.

Ladies, call during this week and see samples of dainty underwear from Ed Kiam's white sale. Mrs. Mary Lawrence, Agt. Ed Kiam.

For fine fresh bread and cakes of all kinds call at the Texas Bakery. Careful attention to special orders. Phone 89. Mrs. Otto Boshme.

Take a look through our new arrivals in lace and embroidery and you will be pleased. Wagner & Bradon.

Mrs. R. J. Deens, who was recently dangerously ill for some time, is improving rapidly and able to sit up.

A. W. Buchanan left yesterday for Palestine to attend the state meeting of the fruit growers' association.

Ladies, remember our sale of embroideries, silks and laces continues all this week. Burt Norwood.

Owing to the bad weather, Burt Norwood's embroidery sale has been continued through the week. 43

WHY?

The reason One Minute Cough Cure relieves a cough in one minute, is because it acts first on the mucous membrane right where the cough troubles—in the throat or deep-seated on the lungs, destroying the microbes or cough germs and clearing the phlegm. One Minute Cough Cure not only destroys the disease germs, and clears out their poison, but it gives strength and elasticity to the delicate membranes which protect the throat and lungs. Opens the air passages and promotes unobstructed breathing. Causes the blood to receive its natural supply of oxygen, thus exhilarating the pulmonary organs with such strength and vigor that the lungs and bronchial tubes become bulwarks against the inception of disease. Asthma, Bronchitis, La Grippe, Croup, Croup and all Pulmonary Complaints that are curable are quickly cured by the use of

AUDITOR LAW LEGAL.

Texas Supreme Court Upholds Act of Last Legislature.

Austin, Jan. 25.—The supreme court sustained the law creating the office of county auditor passed by the last legislature in answering certified questions from the Galveston court of civil appeals in the case of Sheriff A. R. Anderson of Harris county against John B. Ashe, county auditor of that county. Ashe had refused to countersign a warrant to Anderson which had been approved by the county commissioners and Anderson sought to compel him to do so by mandamus proceedings. The supreme court held that the county commissioners had no right to approve a warrant when it had been rejected by the county auditor.

The railroad injunction cases were submitted Thursday in the court of civil appeals. A number of speeches were made in arguing the cases by both the state and railroads. It will be some time before a decision is handed down.
The case of the Lone Star Salt company vs. Texas Short Line Railway company, from Dallas county, was reversed and remanded in the supreme court. This was a case brought by the railroad company for alleged breach of contract of failure of the salt company to deliver 66 per cent of its products at Grand Saline to the railroad company for transportation. In the district court a verdict was rendered for the railroad company, the court decreeing and construing the contract as obligating the salt company to deliver a portion of its tonnage as it accrues, and entered a decree requiring the salt company to perform its obligation. The supreme court held that it is wholly impracticable for a court to assume direction of execution of such a contract.

CHASED BY WOLVES.

Cattle Herds Narrowly Escapes Being Devoured by a Pack of Them.

Denison, Jan. 25.—Joe Hanan, a well known stockman of the Chickasaw nation, states that wolves in large numbers have appeared in that region and are attacking stock. A cattle herder named Hoover was chased by a wolf pack and barely escaped with his life. This is the first time in a number of years wolves have been going in packs and are as bold as when the country was new.

Frank Wilson, who resides on the Washita river, had thirteen steers killed by wolves.

IMMENSE PRAIRIE FIRE.

Large Strip More Than Thirty Miles In Width Burned Over.

Abilene, Tex., Jan. 25.—Advices received here state that a large prairie fire has swept over Crosby and portions of adjoining counties. Much grass on the ranch owned by Winfield Scott and Sug Robertson was destroyed. The Currycomb ranch is also a heavy loser. The fire originated in Crosby county, burning south a long strip more than thirty miles wide. Much range country is devastated at a time when grass is needed the worst.

BOATSWAIN'S STORY.

Says Captain Was Cool and Crew at Their Stations.

Victoria, B. C., Jan. 25.—In an interview at Hamfield Creek, Boatswain McCarthy told the first, detailed story of the Valencia wreck. He said the steamer had been going by day, backing and overran her distance. Landings had been made three and four times an hour. The steamer struck at 11:45 p. m. Monday night, about midnight, the first officer, quartermaster and a seaman engaged in sounding having, ten minutes before, got thirty fathoms.

Shortly before the steamer struck she was going at half speed, Captain Johnson shouted: "Hard a starboard" to the quartermaster and gave orders to sound the bilges, which was done. She did not appear to be making much water. The captain then called to the engineer and asked if the steamer was making much water. Before the officers replied firemen began clambering up from the fire room, telling the engineers on the companionway she was filling. Captain Johnson rang for full speed astern and made for the beach. The propeller had only made a few revolutions when the vessel struck and listed to port. Captain Johnson was on the bridge when the vessel struck, with the second officer. He ran down and gave orders to have two of the seven boats lowered to the saloon deck rail. Instantly the passengers crowded to the rail and overcrowded the boats. During the excitement they cut whatever lines they could lay hands on. The davits broke about the same time the lines were cut and both boats were smashed at the sides of the vessels, capsizing the passengers and crew in them. The crew threw lines out and by means of Jacobs ladders succeeded in getting about six of the passengers thrown out of the boats on board again. The boats when lost were mostly filled with women and children.

One very sad incident was witnessed, a lady and gentleman with a little girl tried to get in one of the boats. The father succeeded and the mother tried to pass child, but a wave struck her and washed the child from her arms. The child was lost before her eyes. One life raft was also lowered, but it was dashed to pieces. After this four boats succeeded in getting away from the ship, all full of passengers. This left one boat and two life rafts. The captain, after consulting with the mate, asked Boatswain McCarthy to take charge, which he did and called for volunteers, and the five sailors who reached shore in safety responded. The captain instructed them to pull along the beach and find a place to get ashore. They landed at 1:10 p. m. Tuesday and made Cape Beale lighthouse at 3 p. m. Before making Cape Beale they tried to get back to the vessel by the beach but could not do so. During the excitement, Captain Johnson was very cool and calm, and all the crew were at their stations. The rescued sailors cannot give the lighthouse keeper at Cape Beale too much credit for the manner in which they were treated.

COLLIER DID IT.

Wrote Name, Town Topics, In the Proof of an Article.

New York, Jan. 25.—When the proceedings opened Thursday in the trial of Norman Hapgood, editor of Collier's Weekly, on the charge of criminal libel, a statement was put into the court record in behalf of Mrs. Clement C. Moore, E. M. Shepherd, counsel for the defense, said that Charles S. Wayne, formerly managing editor of Town Topics, had testified that Coleman, editor of that publication, told him that he had written Mrs. Moore for photographs and autographs of society people and that she had refused to furnish them.

Mrs. Moore's statement was as follows: "It is absolutely untrue that Mrs. Moore was a contributor to Town Topics. Coleman sent to her and wrote to her for autographs of various prominent society people for Fads and Fancies, but she refused to give them. Her husband had become a subscriber to Fads and Fancies and summarily dismissed visitors that called on him."

Robert J. Collier, manager and publisher of Collier's Weekly, was the first witness. To Mr. Shepherd, he said: "In October, 1904, a copy of Town Topics was delivered at my house and I saw in it an article referring to Miss Alice Roosevelt only by her first name. When I went down to the office I called Hapgood's attention to that article and told him I thought it the vilest article ever printed in any newspaper and suggested he write something about it. He did so in an editorial headed, 'The Most Degraded Paper in the United States.' I agreed in this article, however, did not name the paper, but when I read the proof I wrote in the name Town Topics, telling Hapgood at the same time that my action would doubtless involve us in personal abuse."

TWO ARRESTED.

Incriminating Letters and Firearms Were Found in Their Possession.

Monongahela, Pa., Jan. 25.—Constantine Levi and Petro Forcaiki, alleged secretaries of an anarchistic organization, whose headquarters are at Baird, Pa., raided early Tuesday morning and the president and a member of the band captured, together with much literature threatening the assassination of prominent men, were arrested Thursday in a miner's shanty near West Elizabeth, Pa. Many additional incriminating letters, a shotgun, two Winchester rifles and a number of revolvers were also found. The men were lodged in jail here. The officers are searching the surrounding country for other members.

FIFTEEN SURVIVORS.

One Hundred and Thirty-Nine People Drown in the Deep.

Victoria, Jan. 25.—Of the 154 people on board the steamer Valencia when she struck near Klanway rock, five miles from Cape Neale at 11:45 o'clock on Monday night and met disaster, but fifteen were saved. Seven were passengers and eight were members of the crew. The dead number 139, the greatest loss of life in the North Pacific since the "Pacific" was lost in 1875. The Valencia, in whose rigging about thirty people were clinging frantically waiting for assistance which could not be given when the steamer Queen left the scene at 11:30 a. m. broke up at 5 o'clock Wednesday, sweeping to death those few who had survived these terrible hours of privation, chilled and numbed to the last of human endurance by clouds of spray which swept over them. The tug Lorne which Mayor Morley sent at 11 o'clock Wednesday night, after the sad news was brought by the Queen of men clinging to the rigging of the partly submerged vessels and the blue jackets who went on her by order of Captain Parry of H. M. S. Egeria with surf boats to endeavor to reach the wreck will arrive too late, as the sea has claimed all before the Queen reached Victoria.

LEE'S CENTENNIAL.

General Grant Wants It Made a National Memorial Day.

New York, Jan. 25.—Speaking at the annual banquet of the Confederate veterans camp of New York, General Frederick D. Grant proposed an informal resolution that steps be taken immediately to make Jan. 19, 1907, the one-hundredth anniversary of the birth of General Robert E. Lee, a national day of memorial. He spoke of his father's friendship with General Lee and of the latter's heritage to the country, in proposing the resolution, which was adopted amid cheers. F. Hopkinson Smith spoke to the toast, "Old Plantation Days."

In his address he declared the suffrage of the negro was "the greatest crime of the century."
